

Identification of Relatives

The following sheet serves as an additional space to identify relatives who could serve as potential caregivers or other forms of support. You'll want to use the prompts in the template below to fill out information for any relatives or close family friends (like godparents or other deep relationships) that you think could provide a supportive home for your child. For more information, refer to our resource "Kin First: A Parent's Guide to Relative Involvement in the Foster Care System."
