DECLARATION OF POLICE TECHNICIAN ADAM ALESZCZYK

1. My name is Adam Aleszczyk. I make this Declaration based on personal knowledge and to the best of my recollection.
2. I have been employed by the Chicago Police Department (“CPD”) since November 29th, 2004. My current rank is Police Technician. I am currently assigned to the Electronic and Technical Support Unit (“Unit”) of the Gang Investigation Division. I have served in this capacity and title since April 2015. Prior to that date I worked in the Unit as a trainee.
3. I am generally familiar with the CPD’s “cell site simulator” system which is held and deployed by the Unit.
4. In late 2014, just before the Christmas holidays, I and a fellow Police Technician trainee, Dragan Nikin, at the direction of the then-head of the Unit, Sgt. Jack Costa, packed the hardware components of the CPD’s cell site simulator system into several boxes and took them to Federal Express for shipment to the manufacturer, the Harris Corporation in Melbourne, FL.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is to the best of my recollection, true and correct.

Executed on April 20th, 2017
